> Boston-St. Louis-Rain. GAMES TODAY.

Cincinnati at Washington. St. Louis at Boston. Pittsburg at Brooklyn. Chicago at New York. Cleveland at Philadelphia. Louisville at Baltimore.

If there was any person who attende the ball games at National Park vesterd: who failed to get his money's worth he she will please address the grounds keep and get a rain check. This rash propos tion is made under the belief that no or will avail himself of the offer, as th games were full of pleasing incidents an brilliant performances. As promised, At thur Irwin introduced slab artist Roy Ethur frwin introduced slab artist Roy Ev-aus, who is fresh from swell minor league society, who took his station in the mid-dle of the stage, and what he did to Buck Ewing's braves was a sufficiency. Not a hit, nor anything that could be distorted into a semblance of one, was made off his delivery up to the seventh inning, after which he relaxed his efforts and the Redis found him for four sinches, which nested which he relaxed his efforts and the Reds found him for four singles, which netted them four runs. He had five strike-outs to his credit and gave three bases on halls. He fielded his position beautifully. He was a success by public acclaim. Jack Taylor was in the box until the fifth, when he became weary of the way the Senators were swatting his curves and slants and voluntarily vacasted his position to a suc-cessor, and as there was no other availvocamarily vacated his position to a suc-cessor, and as there was no other avail-able pitcher in sight Peitz was switched from behind the bat and went into the box, while Kahoe succeeded him with the mask and wind bag. Peitz was an im-provement on Taylor. He has splendid control, which seemed to fool the Senators as much as his curves, as he caused three of the hard hitters to fan the air. of the hard hitters to fan the air.

of the hard litters to fan the air.

The double-header was called promptly on time, and the curtain went up with Siagle at the bat. He slashed one to centre for two taxes, and was followed by Mercer with an infield hit, which was fumbled, allowing the dark-cyed Apollo to get to first. O'Brice hit up a fly to Beckler, upon which Siagle scampered home. Mercer following on a wild throw to pitcher to ratch Shufe. Freeman was to pitcher to catch Single. Freeman was bit by pitcher, and was left on Stafford's by to Eiberfeid. In the third the Senators came home on an out, and McGann hit to right. Freeman tripled, ecoring McGann, but was caught at the plate trying to make it a homer. In the fifth Single walked, Mercer sending him to third on a single, and he came home on a balk. Their last runs were made in the seventh Single once more started the trouble by singling to centre and was advanced by Mercer's single to right, and came home on O Brich's Suptem. Umpires Sayden and McGarr, Time of single to right, and came home on O Brich's and came home of the special specia single to right, and came bome on O'Brien's | go two-hagger, Mercer also scoring on Mc-Gann's fielder's choice. The Reds got their first home reception in the seventh inning, when McBride made the first hit secred for his side by driving the ball into right centre for three bases, coming home on Elberfeid's out. In the winth, with one Etherfeid's out. In the ulnth, with one out. McBride walked. Crawford doubled to left, sending McBride to third, who came home on Etherfeid's fly to Stage. Beckley hit to left for two bogs, scoring Crawford. This ended the agony so far as the first game was concerned. The feature of the contest was the work of Shelbeck at short. Evans' splendid work in the box, and Mercer's hatting. He was five times at hat and made five hits, a feeting average of 1000. Shelbeck's short-hatting average of 1000. Christ challeng indulged in a double-header to double stop play was simply superb. He had nine chances which he took gracefully and artistically, falling down upon a sun field Run, I follows

The second game was called after a fe moments breathing spell was indulged in with the Cheinnari push at the bar an they started out as if they were going t make a runsway contest of it. After Mc Bride had fanned the air with three strike Crawford singled, and went to second o Elberfeld's out, and scored on Beckley two-banger, who came home on Cochran's single. In the second Breitenstein bange the ball into the bleachers for a hom run. In the fifth Kahoe started off with three-bagger to centre and came home o Crawford's single. This ended the ru-getting for the Reds.

The Senators also got into the game the first inning. After Stugle and Merchad been retired O'Brien singled and can home on McGann's single to right second, Shiebeck bunned safely, Roach # gled to centre, and on McFarlan's out Shiebeck came home. The seventh tuning was full of excitement and incident. Slag! singled, Mercer waiked, O'Brien sacrificed, Single scored on McGann's out, when Free man made a slashing hit to centre and went to third where he was declared out Latham, who was so rough'y handle! O'll both Freeman and McGann that they 10 were both fined and put out of the game. This necessitated a general shaking of of positions. Barry went to first Boach to right, and Kittridge behind the bat. Mercer came home on Freeman's hit tieing the score. The Senators scored in the minth. Single hit to left and after two outs came home on Barry's daisy cutte to left scoring the winning run. Attendance, 2,267. Another double-header today. The score of the first game:

The young man has an expansive of the hardest life about salary and is one of the hardest lides and lides the Englishmen was still prostrate. Ap-parently he could not get up then, for when his seconds took him under the arms and lifted him to his feet he was unably to stand, and was dragged to his chair.

John L. Sullivan, with his 270 pounds of bulk, was the first outsider in the ring. He shook McGovern by the hand, and led him across the ring to Palmer's corner. McGovern held out his right glove in token of friendship, and Falmer, with sadness on his countenance, took it grimly.

At the ringside were a bost of celebtion were Richard Croker and Sir Thomas
